West Point Cadet Led Collaborative Student and Educator Workshop

Friday, January 31, 2025
8:30 AM - 2:30 PM

Mississippi e-Center at Jackson State University
1230 Raymond Rd
Jackson, MS 39204

Focus: This free workshop is intended to develop leadership and promote ethical behavior for student-leaders and educators. Participants will take part in exercises, demonstrations, and competitions, with the goal of producing STEM-competent leaders of character for the next generation.

The Target Group: The ethics leadership portion of the workshop focuses on 11th graders with demonstrated academic and leadership ability. The STEM portion focuses on middle schoolers with a strong desire to pursue a STEM profession.

Workshop Content:

- Students will receive leadership and ethics training and compete for top honors
- JROTC attendees will be expected to dress in Army Class B uniforms

Meals: Students will be provided a continental breakfast and a box lunch.
