

7A English Language Arts

with Ms. Drone

Welcome to ELA 7A!

Hello all, and welcome to team 7A English! This course will consist of reading many different novels, short stories, and poems. We will have class discussions, writing based assignments, and projects. I have high expectations and I know you all can deliver. Be prepared to work hard and have fun.

Contact Me

Room 205

email:
edrone@jpsms.org

Required Materials: 1.5 inch binder, 5 tab dividers, pens, and pencils.

Students will sometimes be required to use pen in class, so please ensure they have blue or black ink pens.*

Daily Supplies

Students should come prepared to learn daily with a pen, pencil, and class binder.

Behavior Expectations

Students are expected to abide by all class rules set forth by the teacher and administration.

Cellphone Policy

Cellphone use is not permitted. Students will be required to place them in bags and at the front of the room daily.

Grading Policy

Students will be graded on at least two assignments/quizzes weekly. They will have a minimum of two projects (essays, presentations, etc) for the school year. The grading scale will follow the one set forth by JPS. The weight of grades in this class will be broken down to 40%-Classwork, 30%-Homework, 10%- Test/Quizzes, 10%-Class Participation, and 10%-Projects.

Homework

Homework will consist of both virtual and paper assignments. For students who may not have an electronic device, a paper assignment will be given to replace it. If virtual assignments are an issue, please email me or let me know.

Behavior Policy

1. I will be prepared for learning each day.
2. I will respect my classmates and my teachers.
3. I will follow directions the first time given.
4. I will follow all other rules discussed in class and in the Student Handbook.

Student Signature

Parent Signature

Date

Date