A young girl with brown hair tied back, wearing a pink long-sleeved shirt and a pink face mask with a small gold animal design, is sitting at a white table. She is focused on playing with colorful wooden blocks. In the background, other children are visible, some also wearing masks, and the setting appears to be a classroom or a play area with large windows.

*Another pandemic shift: In many school districts,
1 in 10 kindergartners didn't show up*
