

Date: November 1, 2024

---

Dedicated to Democracy in the Deep South

Antioch Works for Democracy (AW4D) of Antioch University has provided a mini grant to help students and community members learn about democracy.

This mini-grant was written and proposed by- current instructor Kimberly A. Hardy, Ed.D. Core Faculty Instructor EDUC 7110 JEDI and EDUC 7310 Methods of Inquiry Ed.D. in Educational and Professional Practice Antioch University

We are thrilled to announce the winners of the contest and Special Congratulations to our overall winner Amarion Jones for placing first overall for art!

Morgan
Triplet
(overall runner-up)

We are incredibly proud of our winners and participants for their hard work and dedication.

8th Grade

Ariah Tillman- (1st place)

Katherine Rangel- Oviedo (2nd place)

Kalyn Spann- 8th grade (3rd place)

Alaina McMurtry- (4th place)

7th Grade

Arie Bragg- (1st place)

Trinity Welch- (2nd place)

Amillya Williams- (3rd place)

Tomerial Collins-(4th place)

6th Grade

Rosa Rivera- (1st place)

Ne' Vaeh Alley-(2nd place)

Leonna Jackson- (3rd place)

Honorable Mention

Ashanti Simon * Azari Jones * Ajamu Uwadiiegwu

The poetry/spoken word contest won by Tristan Simmons

Thank you for your continued support and involvement in our school community. Let's keep inspiring and nurturing our students' talents!

- Art Teacher M. McGowan

Art Contest Gallery click here